WILSON OPPOSED TO THE SO-CALLED LITERACY TEST

President Will Veto Burnett
Bill If It Comes to Him
Containing Literacy Test

AGAINST HOG CHOLERA

House Passes Bill Financing
$500,000 Campaign Against Hog Cholera and Dourine

OTHER WASHINGTON NEWS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—President Wilson vetoed the Burnett immigration bill if it comes to him for signature with the so-called literacy test contained in it.

This became known from an authoritative quarter tonight that the bill virtually as it passed the house, including the literacy test would be favorably reported to the senate soon.

The president does not consider literacy a test of character and believes some other means should be devised to prevent undesirable aliens from entering the United States. He told callers today that he had given his view to the senate committee and had left it to them to make it public or not as they chose.

It became known tonight, also, that suggestions with reference to Chinese and Japanese immigration made to the house last Friday by Commissioner General Caminetti of the immigration bureau are not in accord with the views of the president.

Will Be Enacted Soon.
Immigration legislation with provision for the literacy test for aliens, probably will be enacted before the close of the present session of congress, despite considerable opposition to enactment of such reform pending adjustment of foreign relations and on the eve of a congressional campaign. This became apparent today when Senator Ellison D. Smith, chairman of the senate immigration committee announced the determination of the committee to report to the senate the Burnett bill as it passed the house, with some modifications, by the last of this or the first of next week.

He made known the decision of the committee not to eliminate from the measure the literacy test which would bar from entry all aliens over 16 years of age who cannot read the English language or some other language or dialect, including Hebrew or Yiddish.

Asiatic exclusion much agitated in the house will not be considered by the committee. The decision to include the literacy test in the senate draft of the bill was reached after Senator Smith had conferred with President Wilson several times on the immigration subject. The literacy test has twice proved the stumbling block of immigration legislation once by President Taft's administration and prior to that during the incumbency of President Cleveland. President Taft vetoed a bill on account of a literacy test provision and President Cleveland let a prior measure of the same character die at the end of the administration by failing to sign the bill, a form or executive dealing known as the "pocket veto."

The committee plans to amend the house bill by providing for an increase in the number and efficiency of the medical inspection force as suggested by Commissioner General Caminetti of the bureau of immigration. They believe that by strengthening the cordon around the boundaries of the United States that the interests of the country can be greatly safeguarded against the undesirable legislation and that foreign nations can find in such legislation no cause for complaint.

For Hog Cholera Campaign.
A $500,000 campaign against hog cholera and a horse disease called dourine is to be financed by a bill passed by the house today and which already has passed the senate.

Prevents Consideration.
A Republican filibuster prevented consideration of the Indian appropriation in the house today and forced adjournment. Representative Gardner of Massachusetts engineered the move in an effort to advance the legislative standing of a bill to pension windows and orphans of Spanish war veterans.

To Reduce Local Taxes.
Senator Gallinger, the Republican floor leader today introduced an amendment to the tariff laws, proposing that fifty per cent of the income tax collected in each state shall be paid over to the state treasurer to be equitably distributed to the various cities and towns.

U. S. NAVY OFFICER IS KILLED BY FALL

LIEUTENANT MURRAY PLUNGES FROM
AERO-PLANE TO HIS DEATH

Facility Marks Second Tragedy of Kind Among U. S. Navy Officers
—Officials Not Inclined to Discuss Probable Cause of Accident—Officers Express Profound Regret.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Feb. 16.—Lt. J. McC. Murray of the United States naval aviation corps, stationed here, was instantly killed about 4 o'clock this afternoon when his machine plunged 800 feet into Pensacola bay. The machine was demolished and Lieutenant McC. Murray's body was found about 100 yards from the spot where he fell. Lieutenant Murray had been flying over the gulf. An investigation has not revealed the cause of the accident.

Naval Officers Shocked.
Washington, Feb. 16.—News of the fatal accident to Lieut. Murray shocked naval officers and officials of the navy department who regarded the young officer as one of the most skillful aviators of his corps. He was the second navy officer to lose his life, the first having been Ensign W. D. Billingsley, who fell to his death in Chesapeake Bay near Annapolis on June 20th, last. No official report on the tragedy had come to the department tonight and officials were not inclined to discuss the probable cause.

They expressed profound grief over the news and spoke feelingly of Lieutenant Murray's fine qualities as an officer and a man.

"When I hear of such accidents as this I am almost persuaded to the belief that the tolls which science and progress exact are too heavy," said Secretary Daniels.

Lieut. Murray was born in Nebraska, Sept. 14th, 1883 and was appointed to the United States naval academy at Annapolis, Md., July 4th, 1902.

While the navy lost only two or three aviators, thirteen army officers have been killed in accidents, since aviation became a branch of the military service a few years ago.

HOMAGE IS PAID TO MEN OF
U. S. BATTLESHIP MAINE

Navy and High Officers of the Nation
Pay Tribute to the Dead at Arlington Cemetery.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Homage to the men of the battleship Maine who lost their lives in the epoch-making catastrophe in Havana harbor sixteen years ago was paid today by the navy and high officers of the nation at Arlington National cemetery.

Snow-covered mounds over the sleeping warriors were decorated with floral tributes and a staunch little vessel ploughed through the ice floes of the Potomac to strew sprigs of evergreen on the water. Over the graves a detachment of bluejackets fired three volleys and a national salute and a bugler sounded "taps."

Impressive exercises were held indoors at Fort Meyer, the blizzard making it impossible to carry out the full program arranged for the occasion for the cemetery. Hundreds had braved the freezing blasts, however, to participate in the ceremonies at the graves.

President Wilson confined by his physician's orders to the White House sent a beautiful floral tribute. President Menocal of Cuba cabled an expression of the reverence of his government for the victims of the Maine.

SUFFRAGETTES FIRE OLD CANNON TO "WAKE UP" ENGLISH TOWN

BLACKBURN, England, Feb. 16.—Millant suffragettes early today fired a huge cannon captured from the Russians in one of the battles of the Crimean war. For sixty years it had stood silent as an ornament in the city park. The whole city was shaken by the explosion and people fled in the streets in the darkness, fearing that a mine disaster had occurred in the neighborhood. It was not until daylight that the cause of the explosion was discovered. Attached to a tree floated a long strip of calico inscribed, "Wake up, Blackburn."

U. S. SENATOR GORE DENOUNCES STORY AS "INFAMOUS LIE"

Senator Asserts Allegations
Are Invention of Disappointed Office Seekers

GIVEN JURY TOMORROW?

Attorneys for Defense Announce Case Completed—May Be Given to Jury Wednesday

SENATOR IS UNPERTURBED

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Feb. 16.—United States Senator T. P. Gore, on the witness stand today denounced as "an infamous lie" the charges of Mrs. Minnie E. Bond that he had been guilty of improper conduct at a Washington hotel, March 24th, last. Mrs. Bond is the plaintiff in a damage suit against the senator for $50,000.

The allegations, Senator Gore, testified were the invention of a number of disappointed office seekers intended to bring him into disrepute and wreck his chances for re-nomination at the primaries next August.

"I knew that they had 'framed' up on me," Senator Gore told the jury. "I told Dr. Earp when he called at my office on the day following the occurrence that I would see them in my office before I would make terms with them. At no time either before or after that day did I have any official or in the hotel was I guilty of an impropriety toward Mrs. Bond nor did I attempt to take advantage of her."

Dr. J. H. Earp of Oklahoma City was a witness for the plaintiff.

Defense Completes Case.
Senator Gore was on the witness stand the greater part of the day. When he concluded several witnesses were called to corroborate previous testimony for the defense and before court adjourned attorneys for Senator Gore announced their case completed.

After several witnesses testify in rebuttal tomorrow, arguments will begin with the prospects of the case being given to the jury before court adjourns Wednesday. Senator Gore was a willing witness and seemed unperturbed. Mrs. Gore sat with the counsel of the senator and from time to time whispered suggestions.

Reviewing his acquaintance with Mrs. Bond, Senator Gore told of meeting her in an Oklahoma City hotel when her husband's candidacy for the post of internal revenue collector here was first broached. At the time Senator Gore said, he told her the position had been promised to another man but asserted that she persisted in coming to Washington last spring to urge his appointment.

On the day of the alleged attack the senator testified Mrs. Bond asked him to meet her at her hotel as she was preparing to leave for Oklahoma City. At the hotel Mrs. Bond escorted him to a room, where after she had received a telephone message the senator testified she seized him by the hands and fell over on a bed. Just about that time, according to Senator Gore, T. E. Roberts, Kirby Fitzpatrick and Jas. R. Jacobs, unsuccessful applicants for federal patronage appeared in the doorway.

"I freed myself," Senator Gore continued, "and demanded to know what it meant. Mrs. Bond replied that she didn't want Bond to know about it. I realized then that I had been made the victim of a conspiracy."

T. E. Robertson and Fitzpatrick have testified for the plaintiffs. Jacobs may be called in rebuttal.

The latter ships were reported to be nearing Vera Cruz late today. The four vessels relieved to join Rear Admiral Rodgers' fleet now maneuvering at Guacanayabo bay on the south coast of Cuba.

BROOKLYN FEDERALS SEEK PLAYER MANAGER

PRESIDENT GILMORE HAS $25,000
TO USE FOR BROOKLYN CLUB

Rumors Have It That Brooklyn
Franchise May Be Transferred to Cleveland—White Sox Leave for Paso Robles, Calif., Next Wednesday—Hank O'Day Leaves for Tampa.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—President Gilmore of the Federal league reached town today from the east with a check for $25,000 given by R. D. Ward of the new Brooklyn Federal club who asked that the president use it to get him a manager and a player. Gilmore refused to say that any change in the make-up of the league would result from his interview with Fred Bramley at Cleveland yesterday, but rumors reached the city with the league president that the Buffalo franchise might be transferred to Cleveland. The announcement was made that Eugene Packard had been transferred from the Chicago Federal to the Kansas City team. The deal was in accordance with a promise of Weeghman that the Kansas City club could have one of its left-handers and Manager Tinker preferred to keep Pitcher Brennan.

Demands of Ed Sweeney are so strong that the Federals have nearly despaired of landing the New York catcher. Negotiations are still in progress, however. The announcement that Packard had been transferred to Kansas City was followed by Russel Ford, the pitcher, who left the New York Americans has become the property of the Chicago Federals. It was understood at first he would be with the Buffalo.

Advanced guard of the Chicago Americans who are to start for Paso Robles, Calif., next Thursday are expected in the city tomorrow. Manager Hank O'Day with fourteen ball players left tonight for Tampa, where he will begin this week the task of developing one-half of a new infield for the Cubs. The desertion of Shortstop Bridwell, who jumped to the Federals and the loss of Johnny Evers, second baseman, left a hole, the filling of which will be one of O'Day's chief cares. With Saler and Zimmerman sure of two jobs and Bill Sweeney not expected to report the vacancies must be filled by two of five infielders in whom O'Day expresses much confidence.

The Cubs are scheduled to play six games with the Philadelphia Athletics while in Florida.

The cup will be awarded the man who wins the highest total of points for reaching first base safely, for sacrifice hits, stolen bases and runs scored.

World Tourists Play at Nice.
Nice, France, Feb. 16.—The fine weather today brought a crowd of baseball enthusiasts, as well as many who had never witnessed a game to the enclosure where the New York team of the National league and the Chicago of the American league gave a fast exhibition of the American national pastime. The Chicagoans won, 10 to 7.

The French were somewhat puzzled at the intricacies of the play which they found difficult to understand, but they showed much enthusiasm when the ball was hard hit into the outfield. The American consul, William O. Hunter, tossed the first ball to the Chicago pitcher.

Interesting features were a series of daring evolutions over the field by the aviator, Lacroux, and an exhibition of throwing the discus and putting the weight by James Thorpe, the Indian athlete.

Will Consider Radical Changes.
Chicago, Feb. 16.—Radical changes in the racing rules will be considered at the biennial congress of the American Trotting Association tomorrow, but the conservative element among the horsemen who will attend or who will be represented is expected to be strong enough to prevent some of the proposals from becoming laws.

Among the new rules suggested will be one limiting a new record to the winner of a race only. If this rule is adopted no other heat winner will be credited with a record.

Other proposed legislation refers to the time allowances of outclassed horses. The association's congress will follow several other gatherings of horsemen.

STEAMER ON ROCKS IS FLOATED AND SAVED BY THE GALE

For Six Hours Liner Roma with 500 People Aboard
Was Reported In Danger

COMING TO PROVIDENCE

Wireless Message About Ten o'Clock Reports Vessel Safe and Steaming for Provisions

GALE SALVATION OF STEAMER

GAY HEAD, Mass., Feb. 16.—For six hours tonight the Fabre Steamship company's liner Roma with more than 400 passengers and a crew of 100 from Massachusetts for Providence and New York, was reported in a precarious condition on the rocky shoals of No Man's Land.

Shortly after ten o'clock a message was picked up saying the vessel had floated and was proceeding to Providence. This was confirmed by a late message to the naval radio station at Newport. Conditions for wireless work were very poor and details of the accident were lacking. But from the messages sent by the Roma's radio, there seemed to be no grave concern on the part of Captain Comberous for the safety of the ship or passengers. The direction of the gale it is believed, was the salvation of the steamer, although nothing was said of how the Roma managed to get free, mariners said the northwest gale would help blow her off.

The Roma was not expected to reach Providence before daylight. Fabre Line steamers rarely attempt to move up Narragansett Bay at night when the weather is thick and it was believed she would anchor off Newport to await further orders.

Steamer Is Floated.
New York, Feb. 16.—The Fabre Line Steamship Roma which was ashore with more than 500 persons on board on No Man's Land, an island off Martha's Vineyard, Mass., has been floated and is on her way to Providence according to a wireless message received here tonight by the company's agents. The message was timed 10:20 p. m., and was from the Roma's captain.

It read: "We are floated and are taking the route to Providence."

The line's agents said they did not question the authenticity of the message and they closed their offices here late tonight satisfied that their vessel was safe.

Naval Tug Is Abandoned.
St. John's N. F., Feb. 16.—The United States naval tug Potomac held fast in the ice floes of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, was abandoned on Saturday night by the thirty-six officers and men of her crew according to advices received today from Bonne Bay where the crew landed safely.

The tug was driven seaward before yesterday's gale and soon disappeared from sight. The ice was piled so high about the vessel it was feared she would be crushed under the pressure.

Many of the men were suffering with frozen feet.

In honor of the birthday of Miss Margaret Russell of the faculty of the State School for the Deaf, members of the Teachers' Association of the institution gave an informal party yesterday afternoon. The company assembled in the library and spent two hours delightfully. Various limericks composed for the occasion were read and with other features made the party a very pleasant one. Refreshments were included in the arrangements for the afternoon.

The Q. E. S. Girls' club of Franklin entertained the boys at a party Saturday evening at the home of Fred Burch in Franklin. It was a Valentine party and the house was decorated with hearts and cupid. The venerable Alexander Van Winkle of Franklin still remains in a critical condition.

LIGHT COMPANY STUCK.

SUCCESS TO WIND.
Weakened by the high winds of Sunday night and worn by several hours of severe shearing strain on the rivets, the six by one hundred foot smoke stack of the Railway & Light Co., plant on South Main street gave way and fell yesterday morning at 2:00 o'clock, breaking in several places and lodging against the large gas holder at the south west corner of the main building. Work will begin today toward replacing the steel tube with a 150 foot stack of concrete. The power was off fifteen minutes just after the accident happened to allow the installation of blowers to maintain an artificial draft. The new structure will be erected under the direction of the Western Concrete Company of Cleveland, and will be practically proof against winds of any velocity.

WILL TALK ON OPERA.

This evening at 7:45 o'clock at the public library Mr. Munger will talk on Opera. He will take up Verdi's Aida which is his most brilliant work—also his last. It is almost universally conceded that he is the most popular opera composer of the second half of the 19th century. Of his 28 opera several have been given outside of his native country, Italy; but several of them have been played in all parts of the world, and fully deserve the popularity they have enjoyed. Verdi wrote the score of Aida at the request of the Khedive, who wanted a new opera for the opening of his new theatre in Cairo. Mr. Munger will use his Victrola and his records from the opera.

GIVEN FAREWELL PARTY.

A jolly crowd went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Killam, three miles east of the city Monday night when a royal good time was had. Representatives of the Freshmen Class of Phi Alpha and Sigma Pi Societies Will Debate Minimum Wage Scale.

No little interest is manifested in the Illinois college debate tonight at 8 o'clock in the Jones' building between teams of the freshmen class representing Phi Alpha society and Sigma Pi society. It was announced yesterday, however, that he would be on the team. The other representatives of the Phi team are Joseph Looney of Vienna and Edward Korschmeier, formerly of Brown's Business college.

The leader of the Sigma Pi team is Clay Apple, who last year led the Whipple team to a victory over the Millikin preparatory debaters. His assistants are Harlow Brown of the class of 1913 of the Jacksonville High school and William Berryman formerly of Franklin.

The question for debate is, Resolved—that the several states should adopt a minimum wage schedule for unskilled laborers (Constitutionality waived). Sigma Pi has the affirmative and the Phi has the negative. Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp will preside and the judges will be: E. E. Crabtree, L. O. Vaught and Dr. A. L. Adams.

By request the Elks Minstrels will be repeated at the Grand tonight at the surprising prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

NEW SPRING MILLINERY GOODS ARRIVING DAILY AT HERMAN'S.

STORE AND CONTENTS WERE WELL INSURED.

J. A. Rolston who suffered the loss of his clothing store in Franklin Sunday morning by fire carried $6,000 insurance, with three companies. He valued his stock something better than $7,000. At present Mr. Rolston is undecided whether he will return to mercantile life. Frank Miller, who owned the building carried $1250 insurance so that he will probably have a loss to sustain. Mr. Miller will probably rebuild as soon as he can get his insurance adjusted.

The Best Cough Medicine.
"We have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past month and consider it an indispensable. Its effect is almost instantaneous. There is no use of talk or brag. It is a dead shot on a cough or cold. MONDAY CONVERSATION CLUB

HELD ANNIVERSARY MEETING

Entire Program One of Special Value and Interest—Mrs. Carriel Told of Travel in South America.

The anniversary meeting of the Monday Conversation club was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. H. Rowe, 1152 West State street. Members of the club were privileged to invite one guest each and the open session was one of the most delightful in the history of the organization. Mrs. O. M. Buffe, president of the club presided and the program was opened with a brief review of the work done during the past year, read by Miss Janette Powell.

Miss Sallie Harton, a pupil of Mr. Kritch, played as a violin solo, Legende by Weinlawski and the selection was very artistically given. Then Mrs. Mary Turner Carriel, long an honored member of the club, told of her recent visit in South America. Mrs. Carriel is a woman of such broad culture, and as a traveler sees so much that the company in expecting an address of exceptional interest was not in the least disappointed. Some points from the excellent address which was given in an informal conversational way are presented below.

After Mrs. Carriel had finished Miss Janette Powell gave a reading from "The McWing Pot," presenting it with a great deal of dramatic force. A social hour with refreshments completed the afternoon's program and the company found Mrs. Rowe's hospitality of the most cordial and bountiful type.

The Journey to Brazil.

In her address Mrs. Carriel said: "The ride from New York to Sao Paulo required three weeks as the destination is 1500 miles south of the equator. The greater part of the journey was out of sight of anything until the ship neared the harbors of Rio Janeiro, Bahia and Sao Paulo. Santos is the port of entry to Sao Paulo and for thirteen days the voyagers saw nothing living except some whales and flying fish, in the South Atlantic ocean. It seemed rather far north for the monsters of the deep to appear as their home must be near the south pole, but they were on hand all right."

The Harbor of Rio Janeiro.

"The harbor of Rio Janeiro is especially beautiful and the traveler never tires of its glories and wonders with its romantic scenery all about. Bahia is also very attractive. There is a fringe of houses right along the shore while back of it is a steep hill or precipice on top of which is the city proper and which is gained by an elevator from the lower level. Bahia is the ideal home for the African for he outnumbered his paler hued brother both in the city and country and has absolutely equal rights with him there. Many of them are wealthy and ride about in automobiles, carriages or on horseback and frequently a black capitalist will have a white chauffeur and nothing is thought of it."

Homes are Beautiful.

"Their homes are beautiful and unique. Generally they are surrounded by high walls and are very handsome while the shrunken about is a marvel of loveliness. Santos is fifty miles from Sao Paulo and is reached by a railroad said in many respects to be the best constructed work known. It runs cars a part of the way drawn on cog tracks and then cable is used the rest of the way with five power houses. It is admirably built and is owned and operated by English capitalists."

In Sao Paulo.

"Sao Paulo is Mr. Carriel's home where he is occupied with a position as chaplain and professor in the college there. At first he had charge of a church and preached both there and as an evangelist but he received a call to this new work which he has undertaken with much zeal and pleasure."

"There is from Sao Paulo to Rio Janeiro a railroad called the 'Suicide' as so many men have lost their lives in connection with it. It is government owned and doubtless our friends who believe in that delectable doctrine could learn much from it. The homes about the city are very beautiful and growing more so every day. All about them are beautiful trees and great flowers such as are raised only in that country."

Tonight, tonight, repeated by request, Elks Minstrels, prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

BIDS FOR ELECTRIC PUMP.

Sealed bids will be received by the city council of the City of Jacksonville until 12 o'clock noon, Friday, February 27th, 1914, for one 75 H. P., three phase, 60 cycle, 2300 volt motor; also one pump capable of delivering 1,000,000 gallons in 24 hours against a total of 270 head. Specifications for said equipment are now on file in this office. The city council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

DRAINAGE DISTRICT TRIAL.

The hearing of evidence in the Mauvasterre Creek Drainage district case continued during the sessions of the county court Monday with Judge Brochhouse presiding. Nothing out of the usual was presented at either session. When court adjourned it was until Thursday because of the illness of the wife of C. E. Cussins of Franklin, one of the jurors and from the added fact that Jerry Cox, another juror has conflicting duties on Wednesday.

IS MOVING TO CITY.

John Landholt of Springfield is removing his family back to Jacksonville after a residence of about a year in Springfield. They will reside on South Main street.

MISS BROWN CHARMIS

SOUTHERN AUDIENCE.

Miss Susan Leonard Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brown, is a member of the faculty of Salem college at Winston-Salem, N. C., this year and is winning golden opinions in her musical work. Miss Brown recently gave a song recital there in memorial hall and was enthusiastically received by an audience of 600. Miss Brown was assisted by Robert L. Roy, violinist, and Miss Louise Bahson, accompanist. A Winston-Salem paper in a report of the recital has the following:

"Miss Susan Leonard Brown of Salem College appeared last night in a song recital and showed that her talents lie not only in finished and artistic accompanying as she had proved on previous occasions, but that this young musician also possesses a sympathetic mezzo-soprano voice which she uses with taste and discretion. She gave three groups on the program, and was assisted by Mr. Robert Roy, violinist, and Miss Louise Bahson, pianist."

"Her interpretation showed her excellent musicianship. Especially pleasing were the 'Zickeltanz' by Grieg, which she gave with spirit and clear enunciation. 'J'ai pleure en reve' by Hue, and 'I Am Thy Harp' by Woodman, showed the full sweetness and tone color. In Miss Brown's voice, after a delightful interpretation of La Forge's 'To a Messenger,' she gave 'Ferry Me Across the Water,' by Homer, to which she played a charming accompaniment."

The equal of high class professional troupes, the Big Elks Minstrels at the Grand tonight. Prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

ADVISES FROM ESMERALDAS REPORT CITY STILL IN HANDS OF THE REBELS

Colonel Concha Successfully Repulses
Federals After Heavy Fighting.

Panama, Feb. 16.—Late advices from Esmeraldas, Ecuador, report that the city is still in the hands of the rebels under Col. Carlos Concha, who have repulsed the federals after heavy fighting, in which the losses on both sides were large.

The greater part of the city has been burned but the cable office escaped destruction. It is guarded however, by a rebel detachment and has suspended business.

The foreign residents moved into the neutral zone outside the city when the bombardment began and all are safe but supplies are needed badly. Esmeraldas is still under blockade and communication is closed.

It is reported that Colonel Andrade is marching from Tulcan in the north to the relief of Concha with one thousand men.

Tulcan is 150 miles from Esmeraldas.

DANVILLE MAN BURNS TO DEATH FROM EXPLOSION

DANVILLE, Ill., Feb. 16.—Raymond Frye, aged 21, in attempting to kindle a fire this morning at his home near Olivet, this county, got hold of a gasoline can by mistake and was so badly burned in the resultant explosion that he died a few hours later.

Mrs. Mary Price of Alvin, suffered a similar experience Sunday evening and died from her burns during the night. Her husband is being treated in a local hospital for burns received in his attempts to save his wife and their home which caught fire when the explosion occurred.

GOVERNMENT TROOPS ARE CLOSING IN ON CAPE HAITIEN

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, Feb. 16.—The government troops under command of Carlos Zamer are slowly closing in on Cape Haitien, which is in the hands of the rebels, headed by Senator Davilmar Theodore. According to advices received here the people of the north are strongly opposed in Davilmar while the government has the support of the great majority of Haitians and foreign residents.

All the warships, with the exception of the United States battleship South Carolina have departed from Port au Prince.

A DRAMATIC MEETING.

When Thaw Faced Jerome at the Door of His Hotel Room.

In the little hotel at Colebrook, N. H., at which the principals in the Thaw case were staying William Travers Jerome occupied rooms with Deputy Attorney General Franklin Kennedy exactly opposite the elevator, one floor above the rooms occupied by Thaw and his mother. Thereby hangs a tale.

The night was warm. Jerome and Kennedy sat in their rooms discussing the case, with the doors open. Jerome was facing the door leading into the hall. Suddenly Thaw appeared in the doorway. Jerome, his mind filled with stories of the threats of Thaw against him, leaped to his feet and half started toward the slayer of Stanford White. Thaw, equally startled, glared at the man who more than any other now alive he considers his deadly enemy.

But Thaw was the first to recover his equanimity. With a cold bow he said: "Good evening, sir. I seem to be in the right church, but the wrong pew." Whereupon he turned and went downstairs one flight.—New York Tribune.

SAN FRANCISCO JAILERS QUESTION KOETTERS' SANITY

Prisoner Charged With Murder of Mrs. Emma Kraft in Chicago Appears to be Losing Reason.

San Francisco, Feb. 16.—Jailers in the city prison here are divided on the question of the sanity of John Koettters, who is charged in Chicago with the murder of Mrs. Emma Kraft, whom he is accused of having beaten to death with a hammer on November 14, 1912.

That Koettters' mind has broken under the trial of imprisonment is the belief of the two detectives who arrested him last week.

Since the second day of his incarceration, Koettters has lapsed into a state of melancholia, from which the jail attendants have been unable to rouse him. Today his mind seemed to be a blank.

Some of the jailers believe that Koettters is feigning insanity. Koettters has lost about twenty pounds since his arrest. John Haplin, captain of detectives will arrive tomorrow from Chicago to take charge of the prisoner.

CHRISTOFFSON COMPLETES HIS FLIGHT TO LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 16.—Flying eight hundred feet about two mountain ranges, whose icy peaks rared a mile in the air Elias Christoffson, completed here today a flight which started a week ago in San Francisco. Rising at Bakersfield where he was halted last Wednesday by a weak engine, Christoffson, in a biplane equipped with a hundred horse-power motor flew over the Tehachapi and coast ranges of mountains, accomplishing a feat that foiled Keaney and Fowler, two aviators who attempted it two years ago. He made the 170 miles to Los Angeles in three hours and forty two minutes.

VERDICT OF THE AUDIENCE.

Ordeal Which Budding Actors In Normandy Must Face.

It is not without fear that an actor makes his debut in the capital of Normandy. A debut in the French provinces is by no means an easy ordeal to pass through. An actor has a right to choose three different parts, says Mme. Elie, which must be played inside of a month.

The first and second debuts have no significance; he may be received coldly, critically or enthusiastically—it has no meaning; the third one decides his fate. That night after the play the manager, very solemn in his dress suit, appears before the audience and says: "Monsieur or Mme. So-and-so has made his or her debut. The management wishes to know the verdict of the public."

Then he produces a placard on which is printed in large letters the word "Accepted." If the actor pleases the audience applauds; if not, it hisses until the manager produces another placard with the word "Refused." Then the applause starts again, without regard for the feelings of the poor, broken hearted girl or boy who has been waiting in the wings for the verdict of that inhuman jury called the public.—Argonaut.

LEAP OF A KANGAROO.

Never Over Four Feet High, but May Be Thirty Feet Broad.

Precisely how far a big kangaroo can jump is a matter of some dispute. A writer in Cassell's Natural History says that they can leap "over ten, fifteen or more feet." Mr. H. R. Francis tells us that he has "known an 'old man' to cover nineteen feet at each bound for full half a mile," and he believes that he does leap "an average of full twenty feet."

Mr. H. R. Francis is of opinion that the great kangaroo leaps "not far short of thirty feet," and Mr. Thomas Ward gives it as "at least thirty feet." Probably Mr. Rudyard Kipling's "twenty-five feet to a bound" is near enough as a general rule.

But with this more than Olympic leaping power they seem commonly either unable or unwilling to rise any height from the ground. Their specialty is broad jumping only. Mr. Ward says that they "cannot clear an obstacle greater than four feet," and a five foot fence is commonly high enough for any kangaroo paddock.—London Times.

GAVE FINAL SERMON AT TRINITY ON CHURCHILL'S "INSIDE THE CUP"

Rev. Mr. Neeley Said Special Interpretation of His Text Has Been Occasion of the Novel.

Trinity's rector, Rev. Mr. Neeley, gave his final sermon on the "Inside of the Cup" Sunday evening. Like all the rest they had a special interest, as the novel embraces current religious thought to a large extent. The preacher took as his text, Saint Matthew, 23-26, "Cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also."

He said it seemed likely that a special interpretation of this text had given rise to the novel. This special interpretation of Mr. Churchill's seemed to be that the inner life of the church was controlled by unscrupulous men of affairs who nevertheless maintained an unimpeachable orthodoxy. His solution of the problem was that you were to discard all of historic Christianity, its belief and practice and engage in a crusade against the element that controlled.

The rector made two points about this. First, the text had nothing to do with classes of men as such, but insisted that we must "keep the heart above all keeping," for out of it are the issues of life. The individual heart must be kept from sin, then regularly and orderly will take care of itself and so will "business" big or little in the church. It was sin that was the problem. Next, the preacher shows that the treatment of the villain in the novel, "Eldon Parr," was very inefficient. Nothing was done to him. He should have been threatened with a "jail" sentence or at least have been denied access to the Altar. To receive only an exhortation was indeed putting it mildly. Contrast the dramatic scene at Constantinople, when Ambrose, the Bishop, said to Emperor Theodosius, at the door of the church, "Your hands are filled with blood, you cannot come in until you repent and promise to reform." And they were gotten too. Had the minister in "Inside the Cup" done the same thing to his "Big Business" trustee, he would have done something.

He would have at least made his story interesting and given a thrill. If Mr. Churchill insists on writing novels about religion, he at least should study his subject and can well both ancient and modern history for interesting colour and fresh treatment. Let him go to periods when people were really religious and see what happened to any man of affairs who though he could do what he pleased with the church or its people.

OPPORTUNITY FOR COUNTRY PUPILS

The new free high school tuition law for scholars who have completed the eighth grade work, is not a burden to farmers and tax payers. There can't be levied only 1-2 per cent for educational purposes. The state distribution fund comes across to districts and helps them over and comes in increase of $3,000,000 per annum has been appropriated for this purpose. Some of our writers fail to mention this fund. I am confident this law is valid. Some people object to its provisions simply because they don't understand it. There have been a number of tests in court and it has been held constitutional. If the men who take an oath to support the constitution would stand by the laws rather than try to evade them, it would be far better for our country.

Any law passed by the general assembly is valid to all intents and purposes until it has been declared unconstitutional by the courts and every public official is bound to so recognize it. The school directors can not withhold their approval as their duty in this matter is merely ministerial. It is the state ordering these districts to pay these tuitions. The way some school directors howl, you would suppose this tuition money came out of their pockets and it costs them nothing. What is education? What were the Philippine Islands until the people began to know what an education meant? The constitution of the State of Illinois demands that every boy and girl in the state be given this opportunity. A free high school education.

The constitution of the state provides that the legislature shall provide a thorough and adequate system of free schools. The supreme court ruled that the high school was a part of the common school and that it was provided for in an act "to maintain and establish a system of free schools."

The fathers, mothers, boys and girls should be glad this same opportunity to the country boys and girls as to the city residents. Many movements are on foot these days to conserve the natural resources of the country, and to promote the material interest of the farm. But the greatest thing to conserve is the manhood and womanhood of our country.

As the poet expresses it, "Ill fares the land whose wealth accumulates, and men decay." And the biggest thing we can do is to promote the growth and development along these lines which help our brother and help him in union with his God.

BOY'S IDENTITY IS POINT INVOLVED IN LOUISIANA SUIT.

W. C. Walters Will Be Tried for Alleged Kidnapping of Five Year Old Lad—Case Has Attracted Interest for Two Years.

Opelousas, La., Feb. 16.—A case of disputed identity that has kept whole sections of Louisiana and Mississippi in more or less turmoil for the past two years is likely to be solved here within the next few weeks, when a jury of St. Landry parish will pass on the guilt of W. C. Walters, who is to be tried on a charge of having kidnapped a 5-year-old Robert Dunbar.

The Dunbar child disappeared from his home here on Aug. 23, 1912. Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Dunbar, the parents of the child, believed that he might have been drowned in a near by lake. A careful dragging of the lake, however, failed to disclose the body. In the following April Walters was arrested at Foxworth, Miss., and a child supposed to be Robert Dunbar taken from him. As eight months had passed the boy had no recollection of his former home. Walters declared the boy was the illegitimate child of his brother and had accompanied him on a wagon trip from North Carolina, on which Walters plied his trade as a tinker.

At this stage of the proceedings matters were complicated by the fact that Walters furnished proof that he had left North Carolina with a boy practically the same age as the Dunbar child. Julia Anderson, the mother of the North Carolina lad was brought to Louisiana. She swore first that the boy was not her son. Later she became convinced that he was. Mrs. Dunbar likewise was not certain in her first identity of the boy. The next day she was convinced that it was he. This child was brought back to Opelousas and has been living with the Dunbars since.

Soon after the arrest of Walters public opinion in the case became divided into two camps. Mississippians as a rule took Walters' side and Louisianians sided with the Dunbars. Walters is without funds and his case has been championed by people in Mississippi who believe his story. Extradition papers were issued for the accused man only after Gov. Brewer of Mississippi had a special commission investigate the case and after a long fight in the courts. In granting the extradition Gov. Brewer issued a public statement, in which he said: "There is a sharp conflict in the facts, many good, reputable disinterested witnesses, this state being willing to swear that this man was in Mississippi, and that this child is Bruce Anderson, and not Robert Dunbar, but this is a question of fact that I think should be decided by the courts of Louisiana and the courts of that state, it may be presumed, will give the man a fair and impartial trial."

WASHINGTON REMEMBERS

THE MAINE.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The 16th anniversary of the destruction of the battleship Maine in the harbor of Havana was observed today with elaborate ceremonies at the Arlington cemetery, where many of the victims of the catastrophe are buried. The exercises were preceded by a parade of soldiers, sailors and marines. As the parade crossed the Aqueduct bridge en route to Arlington, a flower boat manned by sailors drifted down the Potomac from under the bridge and young women clad in white on the craft scattered flowers on the waves to the "unforgotten dead of the Maine."

The exercises at the cemetery were opened with an address by National Commander Lake of the Army and Navy union. The other speakers included Secretary of War Garrison, Secretary of the Navy Daniels and Commander-in-Chief Lewis Smith of the United States Spanish War Veterans.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE AT GALESBURG

Men of Wide Reputation for Agriculture Knowledge Will Take Part in Program—Jacksonville Hopes to Get Next Convention.

Several Morgan county farmers will attend the 19th annual meeting of the Illinois Farmers' Institute at Galesburg the present week and as before mentioned a committee from the Chamber of Commerce will go to Galesburg to make a special effort to land next year's convention for this city.

The committee which has made arrangements for the convention this year has issued a circular presenting a number of news notes and suggestions with reference to the meeting. Here are some of the paragraphs:

Soil Possibilities.
When the fundamental facts of agriculture taught by Dr. Cyril G. Hopkins and the institute become common knowledge, we will experience the greatest conservation of time and money the world has ever known. There will, perhaps, be no other opportunity to hear Dr. Hopkins in Illinois for some time.

Hundreds of farmers have saved time and money by following the advice of that experienced, successful farmer, Frank J. Mann; he will speak on the afternoon of the first day, and will be available for consultation throughout the meeting.

Crop Errors.

If we make a mistake in starting a crop this spring it will take a whole year to correct it. If, in the meantime, we secure information that will prevent the error, much time and money will be saved.

Live Stock Production.

One of the most important problems is live stock production. Much time and money may be saved by a careful study of this subject. Professors Mumford and Rusk, Hon. C. C. Pervier, J. O. Finley, Theo. M. Smith and others will give valuable experiences and answer questions relative to the various phases of this industry.

The poultry industry is one in which time and money are saved or lost in proportion to the knowledge possessed by the poultryman. Mr. D. E. Hale of Chicago, and Mrs. J. G. Kelley of White Hall are specialists in this line and will devote one afternoon to the work.

Work of the Institute.

Within the last two decades, during the life of the Farmers' Institute, great progress has been made for agricultural betterment, yet new problems are constantly presenting themselves for solution and much remains to be done. An increased and permanent fertility; more and better live stock; better seed; better methods of cultivation; better markets; better roads; better schools; more and better homes, and a fuller, freer, more satisfying life can come only through the application of methods that have been evolved by scientific experimenters, and proven to be economically successful by intelligent practicing farmers and home makers.

There is always a right and wrong way to do things. The Illinois Farmers' Institute is convinced that no mere art of farming can secure crop yields above the capacity of the soil to feed them; it seeks the right way and endeavors to present it in a simple, practical and effective way for the good of all.

POSED GIRLS IN THE NUDE.

Boston, Feb. 16.—Several of Boston's select suburbs are in a state of agitation over the case of Henry O. Ryder, an Auburndale photographer, who was given a hearing in police court today on a charge of having obscene pictures in his possession with an intent to distribute. Ryder's arrest resulted from an action brought against him recently by Wm. A. Graham of Waltham, who sued the photographer for $10,000 for having posed his 16 year old daughter in the nude. When news of the suit became public the authorities raided the photographer's studio, and it said that they found there photographs of a number of high school girls of Newton, Waltham and Auburndale. The pictures, it is further alleged, bore a striking resemblance to "September Morn."

BIDS ARE ASKED.
The board of education of the city of Jacksonville desires sealed bids for supplying the public schools with two lathes, two saws, one grind stone, for use in the manual training department. Specifications for the same are on file in this office. Bids will be received until 12 o'clock noon Friday Feb. 23rd., the board reserving the right to reject any or all.

PAID TRIBUTE TO THE LIFE OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Dr. Post Emphasized the Religious Side of the Character of the Great Emancipator—Lincoln in Trying Times Made Clear His Faith in God.

Sunday morning Rev. R. O. Post, D. D., delivered at the Congregational church an excellent sermon on Abraham Lincoln, the discourse dealing especially with the religious side of the great emancipator's character. A few thoughts from the sermon are presented.

"Abraham Lincoln was the farthest removed from what is termed 'pious,' that is anything savoring off Pharisaism, but as the years go by he stands out more and more as a great man, loved and especially honored and there must be a reason for it. Ask yourself who created the world and if you fail to admit the work of a Divine Being you are an imbecile. As the years pass he stands out greater than ever before. His name is used as an inspiration in China, in Japan, in the Balkans and the remote regions of the earth. As mighty Mount Blanc stands grand, heroic, immovable, towering above the height about it so does the character of Abraham Lincoln soar above those of the men of his day, and as the matchless afterglow on the lofty summit of the mountain fills the soul with awe and reverence inexpressible so do the sturdy traits of the great man impress one who carefully studies them.

"His second inaugural struck the keynote as never before: 'With malice toward, with charity for all.' Grand, noble words. We have felt him more and more in Gethsemane. He was lonely, he was bereft, of companions, of sympathizers, of supporters, of those who believed in his course and policies. Neither party nor party leaders fully believed in him for at least two years. In all he was true to his convictions and sadly he pursued his way knowing he was right. Said he, 'I trust in God and I know He rules.' He might not have been the intellectual equal of Douglas, yet the latter was a mole hill beside a mountain compared with him. It was the power that he used, unseen but none the less real and that power was his fervent, humble trust in God.

"His religion was the highest, the deepest rooted, the truest. He was the product of great ancestors, though his father was not a man of great parts. When a lad of nine he cut the logs from which his mother's coffin was made and months after he went many miles for a minister to preach her funeral and forty years later he said, 'I remember my mother's prayers and they have followed me ever afterward.' He avoided conventional phrases, was simple and clear in his utterances and told what he felt.

"In the campaign he said, 'I know there is a God and He hates slavery. Douglas doesn't care whether slavery is voted up or down, but God cares.' I may not live to see the end but in God's time it will come. He was not pious in the conventional sense, but his religion united the soul with God. To his friends in Springfield as he was leaving he said 'Trusting in God to go with me and remain with me trusting to Him to carry us through, I bid you an affectionate farewell.'

"In Buffalo he said: 'We must trust in the Almighty Being and trusting in Him we cannot fail.' In his first message to Congress he said, 'Let us renew our trust in God invoking His aid in our undertaking.' At another time he said, 'We have been too fast and have forgotten God.'

"At one time he stole away from Washington and prayed all night. To Bishop Simpson he said, 'Pray for me; I never needed it more than at present. He said to another, 'Take all the Bible you can on reason and the rest on faith and you will be a better man.' I do not see why his biographers have been so silent on this one great source of his power. Why should we be so ashamed to speak of Jesus? That was the one great source which anchored him to the rock. He stood without a single man at his side; for two years he was reviled and despised, bitter venom, merciless caricature and the most vituperous and unjust charges were his lot; not a prominent public man believed in him, yet there he stood the only sane man in the land. He towered above all in his humble trust in God and as the years go by he grows greatly in the esteem of a grateful nation he did so much to save."

ATTENDED DEDICATION.

Among those from this city, who attended the dedication of the Methodist Protestant church Sunday at Bluffs were Mrs. H. M. Andre, Miss Harriet Andre, Miss Ida Kennison, Lana McPhail and Miss Alta McPhail.

RUHEUMATIC PAIN SORENESS, STIFFNESS AWAY

Rub Pain Right Out of Aching Joints With a Small Trial Bottle of Old St. Jacob's Oil.

What's Rheumatism? Pain only. Stop drugging! Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil" directly upon the "tender spot" and relief comes instantly. "St. Jacob's Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which can not burn the skin. Lumber up. Quit complaining. Get a small trial bottle from your druggist, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic pain, soreness, stiffness and swelling. Don't suffer. Relief and a cure await you. "St. Jacob's Oil" has cured millions of rheumatism sufferers in the last half century, and is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains.—Adv.

Yaqui Indians Now on Warpath; A Typical Family Group.

The Yaqui Indians, long a source of deep concern to the Mexican government and to the United States citizens dwelling along the border in Arizona and New Mexico, are on the warpath, and serious depredations are expected. These Indians are fighting men of the most dangerous sort, and several hundred of them are enrolled in Villa's rebel army. The illustration shows a grandfather, father and grandsons, three generations of fighting Yaqui Indians in one family. The boys are taught to shoot as soon as they are able to lift a popgun.

Watterson has spent the most of the time abroad, though he has continued to keep in close touch with affairs at home. It is now considerably more than half a century since Col. How To Heal a Stubborn Abscess

A Home Method Sure to Restore Flesh to Natural Health.

Here are some very valuable facts for all who have any blood trouble with external sores. Do not cover any sore so as to interfere with perspiration and the formation of protective scales. Keep it clean and bandaged. If it is a stubborn case, wash your blood with S. S. S. This famous blood purifier works wonders. And you can easily give your blood a good thorough cleansing by using S. S. S. There is no need for anyone to be despondent over the illness of blood impurities. No matter how badly they attack the system or how unsightly becomes the skin, just remember there is one ingredient in S. S. S. that so stimulates the cellular tissues throughout the body that each selects its own essential nutriment from the blood. Do not fail to get a bottle of S. S. S. to-day. If your abscess is of such a nature that you would like to consult a specialist, write to the medical department, The Scott Specific Co., 214 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. Beware of any attempt to sell you something else for the blood. Many people have been injured and even lost their lives by using inferior imitations of S. S. S. Ask for S. S. S. and insist that S. S. S. is what you propose to get.

STOCKS MOVE OUT OF NARROW GROOVE, TURNING DOWNWARD

Most Positive Movement of the Year Forces Down Many
Stocks from 1 to 2 Points
—Trading More Active on Downward Swing.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—After several weeks of hesitation and growing dullness the stock market moved out of its narrow groove today and turned downward decisively. It was the most positive movement of the year which forced down many stocks from 1 to 2 points. Trading was more active on the downward swing and after the force of the selling movement had spent itself the market failed to exhibit recuperative power and no substantial recovery was effected. The sharp break was ascribed primarily to the further suspension by the inter-state commerce commission until Sept. 12, of the five per cent increase of freight rates by the eastern roads. An unsettling influence was the softness of steel which had been conspicuously firm for several days. This stock was un-derlain in large amounts.

Extensive European selling accelerated the decline. Arbitrage brokers estimated that 50,000 shares were sold here for European account.
Professional traders were on the bear side. It has been a common saying in the street that a substantial reaction was due and when the market showed signs of giving away today a vigorous bear assault was inaugurated unhesitatingly.

Mexican petroleum lost nearly five points. Western Union was strong and active on the report that American Telephone's holding of the stock would be turned over to a syndicate instead of being thrown on the market. Copper shares derived no benefit from the fortnightly report showing a decrease in European visible supplies.

BRIEF SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL HELD MONDAY

Tax Levy Ordinance was Given Second Reading and Passed—Bids to be Asked for New Pump at Wideman and Daub Wells.

Very brief was the session which the city council held Monday morning and the amount of business transacted was correspondingly light.

After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved Mr. Brennan spoke of the steel arches which were taken from the square to Nichols park. He said that if the park board did not wish to use them he could handle them to good advantage in making an addition to the boiler house at the park or in some new building. Mayor Davis said that he had not yet had any conference with the members of the park board but that he expected to do so within a few days and that he would learn their ideas and intentions.

Mr. Brennan reported that it would be necessary to again take up the matter of advertising for bids for a new pump at the Wideman and Daub wells. Mr. Knollenberg said that the contract with the Worthington Co., the low bidder, when bids were asked for before was not entered into because the company was not willing to accept payments in the manner the city could make them. Mayor Davis remarked that it was evident to him that the company did not want the business, soon after the bids were opened as the company's representative seemed to be looking for excuses, not to sign the contract.

Mr. Knollenberg as commissioner of accounts and finances was authorized to ask for bids for the pump desired. The specifications will this time show how payments are to be made.

The council then adjourned.

NOTES FROM THE LABOR WORLD.

Union waitresses in Seattle have a home of their own.

France has a trade union membership of over a million.

The employment of persons under 16 in Germany is controlled by special laws.

More than sixty-five thousand persons are employed in the iron mines of the United States.

Agricultural workers in England have been promised six dollars a week for a 12 hour day.

The British Columbia Federation of Labor has passed resolutions favoring woman suffrage, and the exclusion of Asiatics.

The Boston Elevator Operators and Porters' union has decided that the minimum wage rate shall be $15 a week after March 1.

The National Association of Letter Carriers will take a referendum vote to settle the question of affiliation with the American Federation of Labor.

Members of congress holding trades union cards will be guests of honor at a banquet to be given in Washington on February 24 by the Washington Building Trades Council.

In case of illness of employees of the London postoffice may be absent on full pay for as much as six months and on half pay for another six months.

Dr. Charles W. Elliot, president emeritus of Harvard university, is of the opinion that the present industrial warfare can be ended by profit sharing and the elimination of the labor unions.

Every postoffice in the United States would be made an employment agency in which a list of cities where labor is wanted would be kept, under a bill which congress will be urged to pass by the Eight Hour League of America.

A ruling by the Oregon Welfare commission, now in effect, prescribes a minimum wage of $8.25 a week for women employed in industrial occupations in the state of Oregon and fixes 64 hours as the maximum time they may be employed in any one week.

In the year recently ended there were a total of 120 strikes in New Jersey, not counting the great strikes in the silk mills. Twenty-four of the 120 strikes were successful, 28 partially successful and 66 were failures. Twenty-four causes were assigned for these strikes.

Under the joint auspices of the National Association for Labor Legislation and the American Section of the International Association on Unemployment a national conference on unemployment is to be held in Washington at the end of this month. Governors of all the states and the mayors of the principal industrial cities have been requested to appoint delegates to the conference. Reports on recent unemployment conditions, constructive proposals for the prevention of unemployment, and plans for immediate action towards the relief of the present unemployment will be considered.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Homburger Brust Thee" at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

A HAPPY CHILD IN JUST A FEW HOURS

When Chiss, Constipated or if Feverish Give "California Syrup of Figs" Then Don't Worry.

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it cannot cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Adv.

HONORS PAID TO FAMOUS SAVANT IN GERMANY

Professor Haeckel, Said to Be the Greatest Living Scientist, is 80 Year Old.

Berlin, Feb. 16.—Receiving congratulations from distinguished friends and disciples in many parts of the world, Prof. Ernst Haeckel, the celebrated German Darwinian, whom many consider the greatest living man of science today observed his 80th birthday anniversary at his home in Jena, surrounded by members of his family, giving up a part of the day also to a general reception.

Some time ago it was planned by the pupils and other admirers of the famous philosopher to present him, with some fitting proof of their admiration on the occasion of his birthday. When news of the plan reached the ear of Prof. Haeckel, however, he sent out an appeal to his friends requesting them to refrain from sending him any personal donations. He has asked them to devote the money they intended as a contribution to a personal gift to a special fund which he plans to place at the disposal of the German Monists union in order to make the union international in its scope.

Though he is still as alert mentally as ever, Prof. Haeckel is beginning to show the weight of his 80 years and is physically weak. Nevertheless he insists on answering personally all letters which have been pouring in upon him for several days congratulating him on his birthday. He is nearly 50 years Prof. Haeckel occupied the chair of zoology at the University of Jena. Only a few years ago he retired from the position and has since devoted his attention almost wholly to his phylogenetic museum. The phylogenetic museum is devoted to the history of genealogical development.

Prof. Haeckel is perhaps the best known German philosopher alive, and he is also well known in his native land as a bitter controversialist. He has engaged in a greater number of polemics with other philosophers and professors than perhaps any other man in Europe. He is the father of the monistic philosophy of today and his books are read by thousands in Europe. Many of them have been translated in the English language.

He has long been known as the most eminent disciple of Charles Darwin. Darwin's "Origin of Species" appeared just as Prof. Haeckel was beginning his scientific career, and he fell under its influence. He was recognized as the leading exponent of Darwinism in Germany, and when he was only 32 published a book on "General Morphology," which was hailed as an epoch making work in the history of biological research. He republished it in more popular form at a later date as "The Natural History of Creation."

Prof. Haeckel carried the theories of Darwin to more definite conclusions. He has traced the evolution of man through 26 stages, and was the first to attempt to draw up a genealogical tree showing the origins and relationships of the animal kingdom. His most ambitious work has been "The Riddle of the Universe," which was published in 1900, in which he gave his own solution of the doctrine of evolution to the higher nature of man.

Altogether Prof. Haeckel has published more than forty books, besides almost innumerable articles and pamphlets. One of his most interesting controversial works was called "Free Science and Free Teaching," in which he replied to his old teacher, Prof. Virchow who objected to the teaching of evolution in schools because it was an unproved hypothesis.

SURPRISE PARTY.

Last evening a merry party of sleighriders descended on the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Souza, residing northeast of the city and took the victims wholly by surprise but found them very willing prisoners. The self invited guests proceeded to make themselves entirely at home and have a good time and in that effort they were ably assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Souza who entered fully into the pleasure of the occasion. The evening was happily spent in games and various pastimes while the oysters which the visitors had brought were served with a delicious supper which was the object of attack by vigorous appetites and fully enjoyed.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Ranson and children; Mr. and Mrs. Irving Gouveia; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Vasconcellos and daughter; Mrs. Della Todd, Linn Brown, Nettie and Paul Gouveia.

REGARDING CROPS.

Two elderly and experienced farmers said yesterday to a Journal reporter that they looked for exceptionally good crops in this vicinity for two years at least. Such a year as 1913 seldom if ever, failed to be followed by seasons of good crops and favorable conditions. They said thus far wheat was in very good condition. The way it was gotten in the fall, the weather following, the snow and near approach of spring and such favorable conditions all were good omens. The only apparent possibility of trouble will be from fly which may have developed during the warm weather in the fall but it is hoped that the present cold weather will do away with that evil. Certainly a good year is coming to the farmers of this region and the Journal will be pleased to see them get it.

BETTY WALES GIRLS PLEASE AUDIENCE AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Lambda Alpha Mu Society Gives Excellent Interpretation of College Life Stories by Margaret Ward.

"The Betty Wales Girls and Mr. Kidd" was the title of the play presented by Lambda Mu society of the Woman's college Monday evening at Music Hall before a good sized and interested audience. The play was the first ever given by Lambda Alpha Mu and was up to the standard set by the society in all its previous appearances of a literary nature. "The Betty Wales Girls" is based on a series of stories of college life by Margaret Ward which have been widely read and are well known to old and young alike. The play was under the direction of Miss Edith Parsons, head of the department of expression, and the music was furnished by the college glee club, accompanied on the piano by Miss Freda Fenton. The plot hinges on the identity of a mysterious "Georgiana Ames" and "O. Upton Kidd" and is cleared at the last by the appearance of the real Georgiana and the unmasking of the alleged "dashing college man."

Mention could hardly be made of the characters individually as both major and minor parts were rendered in a manner so in keeping with the merry mischief and wonderful ingenuity of the girls of "Belden House, Harding College" that the audience grasped at once the fantastic turnings of the plot and caught without hesitation the "contagion" of the college girls' smiles. Among the specialties was a song by Miss Naomi Davis "How dear to my Heart are the Memories of College" written by Miss Mildred Wolfers of Hopkins, Mo., a former student of the college.

The songs by the glee club between acts were: "I. W. C. Cardinal March," "The Ballad of the Village Maiden," "The Crayfish's Tail" and "Solomon Levi."

The cast: Betty Wales—Grace Heller, Helen Chase Adams, "Dig"—Marie Louise Whitbeck.

Madeline Ayers, an Original Young Person—Naomi Davis.

Mary Brooks—Mary Shastid.

The Three B's, a joyous trio, going through college on the contagion of their smiles.

Bobbie Hildreth—Lucile Reinbach, Bob Parker—Mary Harrison.

Babe Henderson—Eloise Williams, Roberta Lewis—Helen DeWitt.

Miss Priscilla Hicks, English instructor at Harding College—Ruth Went.

Georgiana Ames—Helena Munson.

The Real Georgia Ames—Ola Wendel.

ELKS GIVE CLEVER PROGRAM BEFORE WELL FILLED HOUSE

Minstrels Will Repeat Performance This Evening—Audience Well Pleased With Local Talent Production Last Night at Grand.

Extra good music, well put local take-offs and clever vaudeville features combined to make the Elks' Minstrel show Monday evening at the Grand one of the best local talent productions ever seen in the city. During the entire performance there was not a dull moment and something was doing all the time from the grand opening "International Rag" by the whole company to the closing "London Bridge is Falling Down" sung by the four bright pupils in "Mammy Jennie's School Days." The management report every seat in the house sold and the popular interest in the minstrel has resulted in the decision to repeat it tonight. The play was under the general supervision of Harold Johnson and Harry Obermeyer and owes much of its success to their energy and industry during the time of preparation. Lloyd Reid has the thanks of the organization for his excellent work in planning the scenic effects.

The first part of the program consisted of songs and ballads by Percy Cherry, Harry P. Obermeyer, George Vasconcellos, Mrs. George Orear, Marc Osborne, Julian Hall and Harold Johnson as well as numbers by the entire chorus and clever acts and jokes by the end men prompted by that staid and grave interactor, Al Bromley. The songs were well selected and sung with an intonation and understanding that spoke well for the ability and power of expression of the performers. Among the selections worthy of especial mention was "The China Moon" sung by Mrs. George Orear.

Rag time, instrumental music and buck wing dancing featured the first scene of the second part which was entitled "The Boys From Missouri." The violin, bassoon, mandolin, mouth organ, guitar, trombone and clarinet made music as novel as it was harmonious and the fancy dancing of Charles and Ernest Hansen simply took the house. A spectacular feature of the act was the "Elks' Speed" houseboat which moved across the scene in true Missouri river style. Arthur Hammerstein's Apollo four followed the Missouri boys with all the vim and gusto of natural born singers, unaccompanied by rules or convention. "Mammy Jennie's School Days" showed a quality and understanding of the requirements of the occasion rarely seen in an amateur theatrical and succeeded in winning the unreserved plaudits of the entire assemblage. The school master knew how to mingle business with pleasure and the students were "wise" as to their teacher's idiosyncrasies. Miss Irene Spears, Helen and Deane Obermeyer and Hene Smith were the pupils and Walter Senz was the crabbed old master who did not even know enough to define a polygon. The solos were of a high order and "My Loving Honey Boy," "Was There Ever a Night Like This," "The Baseball Rag" and "I Just Can't Work That Sum" were a fitting climax to the great Elks' minstrel.

People who saw the Elks Minstrels last night said "The Best Home Talent Show ever seen at the Grand." Tonight 10, 20 and 30 cents.

WINTER EGG RECORD.

J. B. Thompson, has received word from his brother-in-law A. C. Harris of Carthage who has made quite a record with his Buff Orpington chickens. He has 33 pullets which laid 663 eggs from Jan. 1 to Feb. 8 inclusive. Owing to the fact that seventeen of these birds were late hatched and did not get to laying until several weeks after the others began to lay, two thirds of the total was produced by the sixteen oldest pullets.

Aside from eggs consumed at home Mr. Harris marketed 82 dozen strictly fresh eggs for which he received $24. Mr. Harris does not consider this record at all remarkable but simple normal winter laying for this breed and strain, when properly cared for. When pens composed of birds of the same age he has secured a very much higher percentage, averaging as high as twenty-two eggs per hen a month for the entire year.

10, 20 and 30 cent prices will rule at the Grand tonight for the second performance of the Elks minstrels.
